#THEBEST LIVESTOCK ARE MAKING THEIR WAY TO THE 162nd ANNUAL CALIFORNIA STATE FAIR

SACRAMENTO – The 2015 California State Fair is pleased to showcase the best livestock in the state. The livestock shows will be split into four periods during the 2015 Fair.

The first set of animals to be at the Fair are the Junior Sheep, Swine, Market Goats, Breeding Beef and Market Beef. The animal shows are focused on recognizing the highest quality market animal in their respective species.

Selection of the State Fair Grand and Reserve Grand Champion Market Animals will be at 6 p.m. on Sunday, July 12, in the Tractor Supply Company Big Barn and will be streamed live by Willoughby Livestock Sales.

The Sale of Champions presented by Tractor Supply Company will be held at the Miller Lite Racetrack Grandstand on Monday, July 13, at 7 p.m.

More animals will be making their way to the 2015 California State Fair on the following days:

Open Breeding Beef, Junior & Open Pygmy Goats, Boer Goats and Nigerian Dwarf Goats (July 14 – 18)

Junior and Open Dairy Cattle and Dairy Goats (July 19 – 22)

Open Sheep, Open Swine, Longhorns, Angora Goats and Llama & Alpaca Show (July 23 – 26)

The livestock shows continue to be an important tradition at the California State Fair and help prepare the next generation of leaders.
